Practice Abstract

Live Value-chain Stakeholders' Forum website

Below is a guide for using the website <https://biovalue-forum.com/>

Access: Visit <https://biovalue-forum.com/> and familiarize yourself with the site.

Registration: The registration process is simple: click the register button on the right sidebar of the site, enter a unique username, a valid email address, a password and fill in your profile details. In your profile details, indicate your name and surname, the value chain you represent and your country. In the next stage agree to the terms and conditions of the site. You will receive a confirmation email. Follow the instructions in the email to confirm your account and then you will be able to log in.

Interact: After logging in you can enter the Forum, view your desired sections, participate in polls and write comments on a topic of interest to you. In the Forum you can also view recent activities and take position in the latest discussed topics. A number of pre-identified topics have been added to the site where you can select the one that will be most useful for your research.

Customize your profile: Each registered member on the site has a personal profile from which it is possible to view your activities on the Forum, view notifications, send messages to other participants and use many other functions. From the profile section you can change your profile data, add a picture and cover photo and change your password.
